When you arrive in Zadar - take the bus or a taxi from the airport to the ferry harbor or old town harbor (7km), depending on the boat you chose. There is only one bus line, so it is easy to find and the price into town is 25 Kuna per Person (appr. 3.50 Euro). A taxi is around 70-100 Kuna (you have to bargain). The bus leaves right in front of the airport exit and runs every hour. On the wall opposite of the ATM machines in the exit area of the airport you can find the bus schedule.

It is really worth it to spend a few hours in Old Town Zadar. It is one of the most beautiful Cities of Croatia with a lot of history and atmosphere.

Money: there is a money change counter and lots of ATM machines in the exit area at the airport. You will need some cash for the bus or taxi, snacks, tips, the local store. Ferry tickets and your extras at the hotel (smoothies, massages, snacks, additional nights) can be paid by debit- or credit card.

Boats & Catamaran: at the Old Town Harbor there are two ticket offices: Jadrolinea und GV-Linea. Everybody knows or just ask google maps. Buy a ticket to Veli Iz (around 30 Kuna) Veli Iz means Old Iz and is pronounced „Eeesh“ with a soft sh-sound. The Hotel is in 2 minute walking distance from the peer. Ask for the name of the boat, when you buy the ticket, so you know which of the many boats is yours.

If you are using the Car-Ferry you have to exit the airport bus before reaching Zadar town. The Car-Ferry will take you to Mali Iz (New Iz) - the hotel will send a car to pick you up.

Find a time table of all boats and ferries on our website.

There is an additional School fast-boat „Melita“ that runs monday to friday evening a 7pm from Zadar to Old Town Zadar is on a peninsula surrounded by water. Opposite the City-Museum is a „Garderoba“ where you can leave your luggage and enjoy your time in Zadar carefree. The little alleys of Zadar are beautiful with lots of little cafes, bars, restaurants and shops. The Ocean Organ, where wind and water are the musicians is worth visiting as well as the many old churches.

From the garderoba it is a 4 minute walk to the ticket counters and boats.

Or from here catch a taxi or bus back to the car ferry.

Below you can see a foto of the Garderoba and a small map of Zadar Old Town.
